

IMPORTANT NOTICE - NON-NEGOTIABLE PROCEDURES

THE FOLLOWING TRANSACTION PROCEDURES ARE STRICT, FINAL, AND NON-NEGOTIABLE.

THESE PROCEDURES FORM AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE AGREEMENT AND SHALL NOT BE SUBJECT TO DISCUSSION, AMENDMENT, INTERPRETATION, OR COUNTERPROPOSAL BY THE BUYER OR ANY THIRD PARTY.

ANY ATTEMPT TO DEVIATE FROM, REORDER, MODIFY, OR BYPASS THESE PROCEDURES SHALL BE DEEMED A MATERIAL BREACH AND SHALL ENTITLE THE SELLER TO IMMEDIATE TERMINATION OF THE TRANSACTION WITHOUT LIABILITY.

FULL TRANSACTION PROCEDURES

1. Letter of Intent (LOI) – Transaction Initiation

The transaction shall be initiated exclusively upon receipt of a formal Letter of Intent (LOI) issued by the Buyer and addressed directly to the Seller.

The LOI shall be submitted for indicative, evaluation, and compliance purposes only and shall not constitute any binding obligation, commitment, or enforceable agreement on either Party.

Any LOI transmitted via intermediaries, brokers, WhatsApp, instant messaging applications, or other informal channels shall be deemed invalid, non-binding, and unacceptable.

2. Issuance of Full Corporate Offer (FCO)

Subject to preliminary internal compliance and commercial approval following receipt of the LOI, the Seller shall issue an Official Full Corporate Offer (FCO) directly to the Buyer.

The issuance of the FCO shall be informational and conditional only and shall not create any binding obligation unless and until accepted by the Buyer and followed by execution of the SPA.

3. FCO Acceptance

The Buyer shall formally confirm acceptance of the FCO without amendment by written acceptance issued on Buyer's official letterhead and transmitted via official corporate email.

Any conditional acceptance, counter-proposal, or amendment shall be deemed a rejection of the FCO unless expressly agreed in writing by the Seller.

4. Irrevocable Corporate Purchase Order (ICPO) and Buyer Qualification

Following the Buyer's acceptance of the FCO, the Buyer shall submit an Irrevocable Corporate Purchase Order (ICPO) addressed directly to the Seller, together with the following documents:

Buyer Company Profile;

Copy of Buyer's Passport (authorized signatory);

Bank Comfort Letter (BCL);

Account Turnover Verification (ATV) and/or a recent Bank Statement.

ICPOs and related documents should be transmitted through official and verifiable communication channels. Documents sent via informal channels may require subsequent confirmation through official corporate correspondence.

Upon receipt of acceptable banking evidence, including MT199 or MT799 (PDF copy) or alternatively BCL together with ATV, the Seller shall review the Buyer's financial capability within two (2) business days.

The review shall be conducted in line with the Seller's internal compliance procedures. Where appropriate, the Seller may advise the Buyer whether the documentation is sufficient to proceed to the next stage.

Nothing herein shall obligate the Seller to approve the Buyer or restrict the Seller's right to request additional information for compliance purposes.

5. Sales and Purchase Agreement (SPA)

Upon successful ICPO verification and internal compliance approval, the Seller shall issue a draft Sales and Purchase Agreement (SPA) to the Buyer for execution.

The Buyer shall return the SPA duly executed without amendments, unless expressly agreed in writing by the Seller.

Upon execution by the Buyer, the Seller shall sign, stamp, and return the fully executed SPA to the Buyer via official corporate email.

6. Proforma Invoice and Letter of Credit (LC)

Following execution of the SPA, the Seller shall issue a Proforma Invoice (PI).

The Buyer's bank shall issue an irrevocable Letter of Credit (LC) for the value of the first shipment within six (6) working days in favor of the Seller's nominated financial bank.

Failure by the Buyer to issue the LC within the stipulated time-frame shall entitle the Seller to unilaterally terminate the transaction without liability, prejudice, or compensation, upon written notice.

Valid evidence of LC issuance shall be limited strictly to the SWIFT message copy indicating the LC number (PDF format).

The six (6) working-day period shall commence from the date the Seller signs and stamps the SPA and issues the Proforma Invoice, irrespective of Buyer's internal approvals, compliance reviews, or banking delays.

7. Logistics and Shipment Arrangement

Upon confirmation of the LC by the Seller's bank, the Seller shall, in accordance with the agreed Incoterm (FOB, CIF, or DAP), arrange logistics and/or transportation and notify the Buyer of:

Shipment or delivery schedule;

Nominated vessel, carrier, or transportation details.

Selection of vessel, carrier, route, and logistics partners shall remain at the Seller's sole discretion, subject to contractual and regulatory compliance.

8. Proof of Product (POP)

Proof of Product (POP) shall be provided within one hundred twenty (120) hours following confirmation of the Buyer's financial instrument and may be transmitted either:

bank-to-bank through Seller's bank to Buyer's bank; or directly by the Seller to the Buyer via official corporate email, with banks copied where deemed appropriate.

POP is issued strictly for verification and informational purposes only, is non-negotiable, non-transferable, and non-monetizable, and shall not:

constitute a financial or banking instrument;

be used for financing, discounting, or collateralization;

transfer title, ownership, possession, or risk in the Product.

9. No Reliance on POP

The Buyer expressly acknowledges that POP shall not create any expectation, reliance, or implied obligation on the Seller to deliver, finance, pre-finance, or issue any guarantee prior to Seller's receipt of full contractual payment.

10. Inspection and Payment

Upon successful SGS inspection and confirmation of quality and quantity at the agreed delivery point in accordance with the applicable Incoterm (FOB / CIF / DAP), the Buyer shall effect payment of the contractual amount via MT103 or TT within two (2) banking days to the Seller's nominated account.

Any delay in payment shall constitute a material breach, entitling the Seller to suspend performance or terminate the Agreement without liability.

11. Title and Risk Transfer

Title to the Product shall pass only upon Seller's full and irrevocable receipt of payment.

Risk shall pass strictly in accordance with the agreed Incoterm and shall never pass prior to payment confirmation.

12. Performance Bond (PB)

Following Seller's full and irrevocable receipt of one hundred percent (100%) of the contractual payment, the Seller shall issue a Performance Bond (PB) equal to two percent (2%) of the contract value within five (5) banking days in favor of the Buyer. Under no circumstances shall the PB be requested, implied, or issued prior to full payment.

13. Commissions

Commission payments shall be settled within forty-eight (48) hours after Seller receives full payment:

Seller shall pay Seller-side intermediaries;

Buyer shall pay Buyer-side intermediaries.

Failure by the Buyer to settle Buyer-side commissions shall not affect Seller's obligations.

14. Bad Faith and Anti-Circumvention

Any attempt by the Buyer to bypass procedures, introduce alternative payment structures, request early guarantees, or modify banking mechanics shall be deemed bad-faith conduct and shall entitle the Seller to immediate termination without liability.

15. Timelines

All timelines stated herein are strict, contractual, and non-extendable, unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing by the Seller.

Banking delays, compliance reviews, or internal Buyer approvals shall not constitute force majeure.
